Unhappy Women!

No woman can be happy when her health is undermined. No woman can have good health while she suffers from female weakness, inflammation, ulceration or any disease of the delicate womanly organs. Nervous, sleepless, fretful, suffering in body and mind, she does not live but only exists.

More than a half a million such women have found a perfect and permanent cure for their diseased condition in the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. Women cured by this remedy say it is a "wonderful medicine," so perfectly does it restore them to health and comeliness.

There is no alcohol in "Favorite Prescription," neither does it contain opium, cocaine, nor any other harmful drug. It is in the strictest sense, an honest, temperance medicine. Its ingredients are purely vegetable, and it will agree with the most delicate constitution.

☞ Don't be hypnotized, or over persuaded, into accepting a substitute. This medicine has a record that's worth far more than any difference in price.

Sick and ailing women are invited to consult Dr. Pierce, either personally or by letter, absolutely without charge or fee, thus avoiding the unpleasant questionings, offensive examinations and obnoxious local treatments considered necessary by many local practitioners. All correspondence treated as strictly private and sacredly confidential. Write without fear and without fee to Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets These tiny, sugar-coated anti-bilious granules regulate Stomach, Liver and Bowels, cure Constipation and Bad Stomach, attended by foul breath. One or two for laxative, three or four for cathartic.

SUED BY COLORED MINISTER.

The first suit under the new Virginia statute making it unlawful for a person or firm to publish a person's picture without his consent will come up at the present term of the law and equity court of Richmond.

The suit was brought on behalf of J. H. A. Cyrus (colored) against the Boston Chemical Company for $5,000 damages.

Unusual interest attaches to this suit, as the decisioin will affect newspaper publishers and advertisers in a very vital matter. The statute under which it was brought prohibits the publication of a person's photograph for commercial purposes, and might be construed to prohibit the publication of a picture in the news columns, even in connection with an obituary notice though John Garland Pollard, who annotated the new Virginia code, expresses the opinion that the purpose of the author of the statute was simply to prevent the unauthorized use of a person's picture for advertising purposes in the strict sense in which that expression is employed.

The following extract from the declaration filed in the case indicates the particular grounds upon which the suit is brought:

"That * * * the said defendants, who are the owners, makers and sellers of a certain preparation called 'Ozone,' whose chief virtue is its alleged wonderful power 'to cause the hair to grow long and straight, soft and fine, and as beautiful as an April morning,' upon colored people; that the said defendants were extensive advertisers of this preparation, and on the days and times aforesaid obtained a photograph of the plaintiff and from it had cuts made of the plaintiff, and inserted the said likeness of the plaintiff in their advertisements, and inserted alongside' of it—at the same time and in the same publication—a picture claimed to be that of the same man after using the said remedy, 'Ozone,' which last picture so resembled the plaintiff than any person could see that the said picture was also intended as a pictnre or likeness of the plaintiff after using the said preparation; and that the plaintiff is a regular ordained minister of the gospel, and as such has been elected treasurer of the national Baptist convention of the United States"

Proceeding, the declaration charges that the likeness of the plaintiff was inserted as an advertisement in the "Colored American," the "Richmond Planet" and the "New York Age." A copy of one of the advertisements from the "Colored American" is inserted. It shows, in one picture a man whose hair is "kinked" and the label underneath it. "Before;" and in a companion picture, the face of the same man, whose hair, however, is straight or slightly curly, and the inscription underheath it, "After."

The declaration then continues: "That said publication of said advertisements tends to belittle the plaintiff and causes his friends to question him about it, and to wonder why his hair is not straight, and why the "kinks" have not been removed from his hair, and many such annoying questions, and many of them suppose and believe, as well as do many of his acquaintances and and strangers, that the said plaintiff for some base motive and for money, has sold the use of his name and picture to aid the defendants in their scheme of deception and imposture, in selling a worthless and useless preparation."

The declaration also says that the plaintiff's honesty and reputation as a minister, which heretofore has never been questioned, has been generally and largely discussed on account of the publications, to his disadvantage.

Unique Parade.

Taking drunkards from saloons, women from dives, and boys and young men from pool rooms and loafing places, twelve hundred men and women marched through Boston Wednesday night, in the most unique and wonderful parade that ever passed over the city's streets. Singing aloud some of their hymns, the army of christian soldiers marched through the city's haunts of vice and sin, taking the willing to Tremont Temple, where many renounced their lives of sin and promised to begin anew, after hearing the eloquent words of Dr. William J. Dawson, the English evangelist.

Women and girls, the daughters of Back Bay families, joined hands with Salvation Army lassies, and went into the dives and saloons, along the route of the parade, taking women and young girls from them and inducing them to join the parade, which was led by Col. Richard Evans of the Salvation Army, and half a hundred other men whose names are recognized as those of Boston's best. At the meeting in Tremont Temple, which followed the parade, Dr. Dawson preached a sermon and as he talked one by one of his hearers filed silently to the small rooms at either side of the platform, until at close of the meeting, fifty people of the three hundred brought in from the slums were gathered. Then the famous evangelist prayed for them.

"IT SAVED MY LIFE"

PRAISE FOR A FAMOUS MEDICINE

Mrs. Willadsen Tells How She Tried Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Just in Time.

Mrs. T. C. Willadsen, of Manning, Iowa, writes to Mrs. Pinkham:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I can truly say that you have saved my life, and I cannot express my gratitude to you in words.

Mrs T. C. Willadsen

"Before I wrote to you, telling you how I felt, I had doctored for over two years steady and spent lots of money on medicines besides, but it all failed to help me. My monthly periods had ceased and I suffered much pain, with fainting spells, headache, backache and bearing-down pains, and I was so weak I could hardly keep around. As a last resort I decided to write you and try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am so thankful that I did, for after following your instructions, which you sent me free of all charge, my monthly periods started; I am regular and in perfect health. Had it not been for you I would be in my grave to-day.

"I sincerely trust that this letter may lead every suffering woman in the country to write you for help as I did."

When women are troubled with irregular or painful menstruation, weakness, leucorrhœa, displacement or ulceration of the womb, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation of the ovaries, backache, flatulence, general debility, indigestion and nervous prostration, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. Refuse all substitutes.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

FRIDAY EVENING, MAR. 3, 1905.

THE SENATE last night very properly knocked from the general deficiency bill the amendment which the House inserted Wednesday night appropriating $190,000 for mileage of members during the so-called "constructive recess" at the beginning of the last session of Congress. Senator Gorman called the matter up when the amendment was reached. Senator Hale said the Senate committee reporting the bill had taken the stand squarely on the proposition that no space of time intervened between the first two sessions of this Congress. The Senate had also taken a similar stand by adopting the report of the judiciary committee, denying that anything like a constructive recess could exist. It was not contended by members of the House who had voted for this mileage grab that time had been spent by Senators or members of the House traveling on the road during the so-called recess, or that any space of time actually intervened between the two sessions, but they acted upon the ground that there was a chance of pocketing $190,000 and they would have done so but for the timely action of the Senate. Had this "constructive mileage" been allowed the Porto Rican and Hawaiian Delegates would have received as mileage several thousand dollars each, although neither traveled a mile during the so-called recess, and the other members would have received smaller amounts according to the distance they lived from Washington. Those who voted for the "grab" should be remembered should they ever again come before the people for reelection.

THE Supreme Court decided last week that local Boards of Health, on the authority of State legislatures, had the right to compel persons to submit to vaccination in an outbreak of smallpox. The case was that of a citizen of Cambridge, Mass., woh was fined for refusing to be vaccinated. It was justly, properly and sensibly contended that the law was contrary to the constitution; that vaccination did not protect, and that it was dangerous, notwithstanding that Justice Harlan in delivering the opinion of the court said that one person or a minority in any community should not have the power to dominate the majority in matters affecting the public health. Justices Brewer and Peckham dissented, but the court's decision was as severe a blow at personal liberty as was ever inflicted.

A DISPATCH from Richmond says "a call has been made upon the various candidates for State offices to announce their standing on the school-book question; that is, whether they favor the multiple or the single list." This is but a demagogic move to bring the schools into politics and should be frowned upon by every well wisher of the schools of the State. If there is one measure that should be kept out of politics it is that of the public schools, and the men trying to use the schools as stepping stones to office should be severely reprimanded.

PARIS hears that the secret of the manufacture of the famous chartreuse liquor brewed by the Carthusian monks, who were expelled from France, has been sold to an English syndicate for $3,000,000, the monks becoming interested in the syndicate so as to remain virtually in control of the business. This syndicate will carry on the manufacture of the liquor at the old stand at Grenoble, France, thus relieving the distress of numerous families which depended on employment in the factory.

PROFESSOR BAILEY, of the political economy department at Yale, has gathered from the 300 seniors and juniors in his classes their family history. He finds from these figures that the average family of the rich is 3 3-5 children, as compared with slightly less than four among the poor of New York city, which, he claims, disproves the race suicide theory.

THE FIRST eight months of the fiscal year show a treasury deficit of $24,405,583. The total receipts were $365,688,210, and the expenditures $391,073,744. Yet, Congress goes on spending millions upon millions of money just as though there was a plethoric treasury.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]
Washington, D. C., March 3.

The War Department today, by direction of the President, issued an order relieving Brigadier General Frederick Funston from the command of the department of the lakes with headquarters at Chicago, Ill., to take effect March 31st, and assigning him to the command of the department of California, and to the temporary command of the Pacific Division from April 6, to succeed Brigadier General Francis Moore, who will retire from active service on that date.

A sealed personal letter of congratulation from King Edward VII was delivered to the President this morning by Sir Mortimer Durand, the British Ambassador. Its contents were not made public and no one knows in just what manner the king's felicitations were expressed except the President and the writer of the royal missive.

The conferees on the Indian appropriation bill came to an agreement today.

The Senate this afternoon unanimously passed a resolution extending for another year the powers conferred upon the President by the Spooner act with reference to the construction of the Panama canal and the government of the canal zone. Under this resolution, if passed by the House, the President will be able to make any changes he sees fit in the composition of the Panama canal commission.

On what was in effect a test vote, the pure food bill was displaced by a vote of 28 to 23 in the Senate this afternoon.

A special federal grand jury which has been sitting here for the past week today returned an indictment against Representive Binger Herman, of Oregon, charging violation of the revised statutes 5408 in that he unlawfully and fraudulently destroyed on January 30, 1904, while Commissioner of the General Land Office, 35 letter press copy books of the office with their entire contents. Secretary of the Interior Hitchcock was one of the witnesses against Herman before the grand jury.

The President has decided to appoint Col. James Linn Rogers, of Columbus, Ohio, to be Consul General at Shanhai.

Fifty-Eighth Congress.

Washington, March 3.

SENATE.

Inaugural visitors crowded the galleries of the Senate this morning. The resolution offered by Senator Kittredge last night extending the powers of the President over the Panama canal zone for another year was taken up. Mr. Kittredge made a short statement regarding the situation, resulting from the failure of the conference to agree on the pending bill, which involves the abolition of the present Isthmian Canal Commission.

Senator Gorman said that in controversy between the two houses the one which proposed the most radical legislation should recede. In this case he thought the House which proposed the abolition of the canal commission should recede and he urged the adoption of the proposed resolution.

Senator Spooner said that he was not entirely satisfied with the commission, but at the same time he would prefer a commission rather than leave the construction of the canal in the hands of the War Department alone.

After considerable discussion, the resolution was unanimously agreed to, 67 senators voting.

A partial report on the river and harbor bill was agreed to, and the measure was again sent to conference with instructions that the Senate amendments be insisted upon. In replying to an inquiry Mr. Gallinger in charge of the bill announced that among the existing differences was one relating to the Delaware river improvement. He said the House conferees stoutly resisted the proposed increase of $500,000.

HOUSE.

Today in the House was a continuation of the legislative day of yesterday, the House having taken a recess from last night instead of adjourning.

Scarcely one hundred members were present when Speaker Cannon called the House to order, at 11:30.

The galleries were packed with visitors to the inauguration, who took a deep interest in the dry proceedings.

A resolution was agreed to directing the President to extend to the international prison congress an invitation to hold its eighth annual congress in the United States.

A resolution by Mr. Hull, was agreed to directing the Secretary of War to give to the G. A. R. a condemned cannon to be made into badges for the veterans of the civil war.

A bill was passed encouraging rifle practice in militia organizations.

One more great appropriation bill was dispose of, when the conference report on the Indian appropriation bill was agreed to.

Mr. Overstreet, of Indiana, chairman of the postoffice committee, submitted the conference agreement on the postoffice appropriation bill. It now carries $181,022,093. The report was agreed to.

The naval appropriation conference report was next considered.

Report on the Beef Trust.

Washington, D. C., Mar. 3.—The report of the Commissioner of Corporations upon the beef industry, submitted in compliance with the resolution of the House of Representatives adopted March 7, 1904, was submitted to Congress today by the President. Among other things lhe report says:

"That six packing companies—Armour & Co., Swift & Co., Morris & Co., the National Packing Company, the Schwarzschild & Sulzberger Company, and the Cudahy Packing Company, frequently designated in the trade as the 'The Big Six'—slaughtered, in the year 1903, 5,521,697 head of cattle out of a total indicated slaughter in the United States of 12,500,000 head, or about 45 per cent."

After showing the flugtuations in prices of beef for several years past, the report continues:

"That the six leading packing companies especially discussed are apparently not overcapitalized. That the percentage of profit on the gross volume of business, including hog and sheep products and other minor commodities, is comparatively small. That the profit of private car lines in the packing industry on mileage is a very liberal one, approximate computations indicating a net return of from 14 per cent. to about 17 per cent. Reckoning on the basis of dressed beef transported, however, this profit would add but little to the cost of such beef to the consumer, the net profit from the mileage of private cars being computed at not more than 4 cents per hundred pounds of beef, or, say, 25 cents per head of cattle."

The report concludes as follows: "As stated, the results of the bureau's investigation indicate that the larger packing companies especially considered are not overcapitalized. Presumptive evidence in favor of capitalization is found in the very concentrated holdings of the stocks of these companies, nearly all of which, with the exception of Swift & Co., are held by the packers themselves and their families. In the case of Swift & Co. the entire $35,000,000 capital stock and $5,000,000 bonds were paid in cash and at par."

A Destructive Fire.

To draw the fire out of a burn, or heal a cut without leaving a scar, use Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve. A specific for piles. Get the genuine. J. L. Tucker, editor of the Harmonizer, Centre, Ala., writes: "I have used DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve in my family for piles, cuts and burns. It is the best salve on the market. Every family should keep it on hand." Sold by all druggists.

Safe crackers entered the general store postoffice of Hiram Jelliffe, at Saugatuck, Conn., early this morning, blew open the safe and secured a large sum of money. The postoffice property, however, was not disturbed. Mr. Jelliffe says he cannot tell exactly how much was taken. The burglars escaped. The store and safe were partially wrecked.

News of the Day.

Mr. Kehoe (Kentucky) introduced a concurrent resolution in the House yesterday to annex the republic of Panama to the United States.

The celebrated Polish poet Andreas Niemojevski has been expelled from Warsaw and ordered to reside permanently under police supervision in a small village near Lublin.

Mrs. Ridley Watts, the widow of the great-grandson of the Earl of Sterling, died suddenly at Nice yesterday. Mrs. Watts was the daughter of Henry Grinnell, the New York scientist.

Gregory Potanin, the most eminent contemporary Russian scientist, has been arrested at Tomsk, on the eve of his seventieth birthday, according to a dispatch to the Berlin Tageblatt, on the ground that he is suspected of sympathy with the progressive movement among the peasants.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg states that a well authenticated report is current there that a war council will be held at St. Petersburg about March 5, to decide whether Gen. Kuropatkin will be recalled, and who will succeed him in case of his recall. The dispatch adds that Mirsky, former Minister of the Interior, is ill at Kharkoff.

Judge Anderson of the District of Columbia Court yesterday issued an order granting an injunction to the Brown Bag Filling Company against James L. Drohen, who has the government contract for packing the seeds sent through Congressmen throughout the country. The injunction does not take effect until March 15, so Drohen may until that time use the device of the Brown Company.

Dr. John Holden, a Washington dentist, attempted suicide yesterday afternoon at his home, 506 K street southwest, by shooting himself in the forehead, inflicting a gaping wound. His injuries are not necessarily fatal. Dr. Holden has been in ill health for some months, and as a result of several surgical operations he has become a physical wreck. His condition caused him to become despondent.

After protesting his innocence throughout two trials of his case. Dr. E. B. Dawson, the young Baltimore dentist, pleaded guilty in the Criminal Court in that city yesterday morning to the fourth count of two of the indictments charging him with common assault upon a little girls who live at the Kelso Home, and Judge Wickes sent him to jail for five years in each case, the sentences to run concurrently. This will confine Dawson for ten years.

The Senate committee on foreign relations has determined that it will meet on Monday, March 6, to begin the consideration of the Santo Domingo treaty, and that it will continue its sessions from day to day until it is possible to report the convention to the Senate. There is great and growing opposition among democrats in the Senate to this treaty, some of them going so far as to declare that it is the worst proposition that has ever been submitted for ratification by any executive. The result will probably be a long debate in the extra session of the Senate, with the ratification of the treaty doubtful.

CONGRESSIONAL.

The Senate yesterday passed the sundry civil appropriation bill, carrying about $68,000,000. There also was discussion of the pure food bill, and Mr. Dolliver made a brief speech in support of his resolution providing for the appointment of a joint congressional commission to investigate the question of railroad rates. The resolution was referred to the committee on interstate commerce.

At the night session the general deficiency appropriation bill, the last of the supply measures, was considered by the Senate.

When the general deficiency appropriation bill was reported yesterday to the Senate the House item providing for the payment of members for the mileage grab had been stricken out. Last evening the deficiency bill was passed by the Senate, minus the House provision, and goes into conference in that form. It is certain that the Senate's objection to the $190,000 appropriation will prevail.

In the House the naval bill was sent back to conference, and conference reports were agreed to on the fortifications and agricultural appropriation bills. The bill authorizing the Secretary of Agriculture to establish and maintain quarantine districts in the several States and to permit and regulate the movement of cattle was passed. A number of minor bills were passed, the House taking a recess at 5:30 o'clock until 9 o'clock p. m.

At the night session bills were taken up under suspension of the rules, and a number of measures were passed. The House refused to suspend the rules to pass a resolution providing for the appointment of a committee to investigate the Panama Railroad and canal during the recess, and declined to suspend the rule to pass a bill to establish a leprosarium in one of the territories. A new anti-smoke bill for the District of Columbia was passed, amending the Senate bill, and the House declined a conference with the Senate.

Sidney Mountjoy, a well known young man of Stafford county, aged twenty two years, was killed Monday while felling timber. He was cutting down a large tree, and the tree, in falling caught him beneath it and crushed him to death. He is survived by his widow, mother, six brothers, and three sisters.

Rev. Dr. Richard R. Jones, pastor of a colored Baptist church at Roanoke, who was driven from that town by a mob because his remarks about the assault on a white woman by a negro offended the white people of the city, has sued the city of Roanoke for $50,000 damages. The suit was entered at Lynchburg.

The Jamestown Bill.

Government participation in the exposition to celebrate the first permanent settlement of English-speaking people on the western hemisphere, in the vicinity of Jamestown, was provided by the House yesterday, when by a vote of 192 to 91 the bill for that purpose was passed under a suspension of the rules. The bill was also rushed through the Senate. The amount appropriated is $250,000.

The members of the Virginia delegation during the roll call mingled among their colleagues and personally appealed to them to cast their votes in support of the measure. An interested spectator was Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, president of the exposition company.

The bill was brought up by Mr. Maynard, who moved a suspension of the rules for the passage of the substitute bill providing for an international naval, marine, and military celebration to be held on the waters of Hampton Roads, beginning May 13, and ending not later than November 1, 1907.

Mr. Tawney in favoring the bill gave a description of the plans andpurposes of the exposition company.

Vigorous opposition came from Messrs. Littlefield, Burkett, and Hepburn. The whole plan was described by Mr. Burkett as "ridiculous from beginning to end."

Mr. Swanson denied that the money was intended for a government exhibit. He emphatically asserted that the exposition company had at its disposal $1,200,000 for the undertaking.

The bill was finally passed, by a vote of 192 to 91.

While the general deficiency bill was under consideration in the Senate last evening Mr. Martin called up the House bill appropriating $250,000 for a celebration, in 1907, of the first settlement of English-speaking people in America, and it was passed. The bill will now go to the President.

State Board of Education.

The State Board of Education met in Richmond Wednesday night and sat until 12:30 a. m., adjourning until 10 a. m. yesterday, when the work before it was resumed. City Superintendent E. C. Glass, of Lynchburg, and John T. West, of Norfolk county, division superintendent, whose terms as members of the State Board of Education expired by limitation, were re-elected by the remaining members of the board.

The board received a tentative report of a committee, consisting of Dr. C. W. Kent, Messrs. W. A. Bowles and John T. West, recently constituted to report on the feasibility of reducing the number of superintendency divisions by consolidating two or more of the old divisions, where deemed advisable, last night submitted a tentative report. The board declined to give this out for publication at this time, saying that the matter would be recommitted to the same committee for further consideration and amended report. Just how many consolidations this report proposes was not announced. The board heard several gentlemen in opposition to the proposed consolidation of the Alexandria and Fairfax divisions last night, because the gentlemen were in the city to be heard, but did not dispose of the case. It was finally determined to receive and take up the final report on the work of redivision March 21st.

Webster's Worcester and the Standard were chosen as dictionaries for the high schools.

The board yesterday completed its work by adopting for the high school list Williams and Rogers' system of bookkeeping, Morris's commercial arithmetic, Lewis's elementary Latin dictionary, and a course in English history and general and advanced American history.

The Governor will ride a horse belonging to Judge Norton, of Alexandria, kindly tendered for the parade tomorrow.

Fierce Battle Raging.

Tokio, March 3.—A report is current this morning that the Japanese have almost reached Mukden. The battle is still raging fiercely. The Russian have recaptured several positions which they had lost in the past few days.

With Gen. Oku, Manchuria, March 2. (Delayed.)—The Japanese opened a terrific bombardment along the entire line today. The heaviest guns ever used in the field were employed and did great damage to the Russian defenses. One hundred guns of all sizes were employed. The guns were quiet, evidently unable to reply. The Japanese left completely blocked Russian attempts to turn it.

With General Oku, Manchuria, March 2. (Delayed).—The battle is now progressing favorably despite a heavy snow storm. We have made great gains by night attacks on the extreme left, and now occupy a part of the first line of the Russian triple defenses in the hills beyond the Shahke river. Yesterday we began to swing our main force northward. Our troops on the east bank of the Hun river have advanced on the villages in the vicinity of Chantan, within a hundred metres of the enemy's trenches.

With General Kuroki. (undated.)—We are pushing forward and have now gained Opuves and Takasan, surprising the Russians. A tremendous bombardment is now proceeding. Our artillery is directed against Wanhaosan Hill. Sixty Russian guns are opposing us. We have just occupied Witosan.

Tokio, March, 3.—Dispatches from the front state the Japanese are advancing all along the line and are now eleven and a quarter miles from Mukden. There have been heavy losses on both sides. Severe fighting is in progress everywhere. The Japanese are using heavy siege guns and troops from Port Arthur. General Oku's columns are now turning the Russian right at Sawinpu, 11½ miles west of Mukden. Japanese cavalry, too, has appeared at Sinminting. It is believed General Kuropatkin will soon be compelled to evacuate Mukden.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—General Kuropatkin reports under today's date that Russians continue to hold their positions.

Conditions in Russia.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—An imperial manifesto was published in the Official Messenger today appealing to the people to rally around the throne and defend it against an internal enemy. The manifesto reminds the institutions and authorities of Russia of the duty imposed upon them by their oaths and terms of service to secure the integrity of the laws, the protection of the people, and the maintenance of public order. The manifesto continues: "The nation should adopt an attitude of calmness and tranquility, expecially on account of the enormous struggle with Japan. The people should give a whole-hearted support to the present regime, for an autocracy is the only form of government possible in Russia." The manifesto is most significant for several reasons. In the first place it states flat-footed that the hopes of the anti-autocracy circles are doomed to disappointment. Again, it shows there are widespread official misgivings and fears that the workmen will utilize the celebration of the freeing of the serfs tomorrow for a renewal of disturbances. No reply has as yet been announced to the workmen who have sent an ultimatum to the government demanding reforms. It is impossible to predict what will occur tomorrow, as the effects of the secret working of agitators have not yet been revealed. Officialdom does not conceal its belief that the country is on the eve of a grave crisis.

A ukase has been issued by the Senate announcing that the committee of ministers has been directed to consider the report of the schemes submitted by private persons and societies concerning the improvement of the administration of state affairs and the amelioration of the condition of the people.

St. Petersburg, March 3.—The ultimatum presented by the workmen to the government demanding immediate reforms has been rejected. A general strike seems inevitable.

Berlin, March 3.—A telegram from Warsaw states that the Imperial manifesto issued in St. Petersburg this morning, has provoked a revolutionary outbreak. The rioters invaded the factories in the suburb Wola and forced the men to stop work. They then demolished the works. Cossacks charged the mob and stiff fighting ensued. There were heavy casualties on both sides. Many persons were arrested.

Warsaw, March 3.—Last night the police raided the Jewish quarter and arrested 375 Jews. The reason for the arrests has not been given.

Suspected of Poisoning Mrs. Stanford

San Francisco, March 3.—A dispatch from Honolulu announces that Miss Bertha Berna, Mrs. Stanford's secretary, has named a Chinese cook employed by Mrs. Stanford as the man suspected of poisoning his mistress. This man with three other servants were inmates of the Stanford mansion on Nob Hill, in San Francisco. Acting upon this suggestion from Honolulu all members of the household are under guard. A watchman is stationed at the gate, warned not to permit any one to leave or enter the house.

Train Wrecked.

Trenton, N. J., March 3.—Traffic on the Pennsylvania Railroad main line was completely blocked for three hours this morning by a freight wreck, which occurred at o'clock two miles east of Trenton. A stalled freight was crashed into from the rear by the engine of a westbound freight. Twelve cars and a caboose were shattered to pieces and the front of the colliding engine was smashed in. No one was injured. The wrecked cars took fire from a stove in the demolished caboose.

THE INAUGURATION.

Washington, March 3.—If the sun will smile tomorrow the inauguration of President Roosevelt will be one of the most brilliant and most largely attended celebrations of the kind ever held at the Capitol. Flags are floating from a thousand staffs and a thousand windows; bunting is streaming from review stands all along the avenue from the White House to the Capitol; fakirs loaded down with hugh collections of badges and souvenirs are making the air resound with their cries; gangs of shovelers and broommen are polishing the asphalt of Pennsylvania avenue; street cars and steam cars are packed to the outermost edges with visitors, and good humor and good cheer prevails. All kinds of people are here from all directions. The rush of incoming military organizations which began last night continues today, and all the halls and armories, market houses and vacant buildings are filled up with uniforms and soldier caps.

The finishing touches were put on the Court of History and the reviewing stands in front of the White House this morning. Every incoming train that brought its crowd of visitors brought also its express cars filled with eatables and drinkables, ordered in haste at the eleventh hour. So authorities have decided to abandon their plan of having a "wet" Sunday.

According to present arrangements President Roosevelt will seal his oath of office by kissing the Bible he used when taking the oath as Governer of New York January 2, 1899. Chief Clerk John D. McKenny, of the Supreme Court, has provided a Bible in case the New York Bible is not forthcoming. "If I had my way," said Mr. McKenny today, "I would use the little Bible we have in the Supreme Court. It has been in use since 1808, and every associate justice and chief justice has used it in taking the oath since that time, with the exception of Chief Justice Chase, who had a Bible of his own. Chief Justice Marshall was not sworn with it, because he took the oath as a district judge at Richmond Va. Every lawyer sworn as a member of the Supreme Court Bar has touched the same book. When it performs a hundred years' service, I'm going to have it put under a glass cover and buy a new one for the next century. President Cleveland took the oath on a little red bound Bible his mother had given him when he first left home in his boyhood."

The details of the personnel of the great military and civic pageant which is to be the crowning feature of the ceremonies of President Roosevelt's inauguration on March 4 are given in "General Orders No. 5" of the Grand Marshal, made public last night by the inaugural committee. It gives the order of the parade, its organization, movement and dismissal and shows all of the military and civic bodies which are to participate, as well as the position which they will occupy. It is estimated that approximately 30,000 men will be in line. The following will be the programme of the day:

9:30 a. m.
President leaves the White House for Capitol.

President enters Senate chamber.

12 Noon.
President pro tem. of the Senate administers oath of office to Vice-President-elect Fairbanks, who delivers his inaugural address.

12:30 p. m.

President returns to White House. Grand parade follows.

7:30 p. m.

Preacher Cordova in Jail.

J. F. Cordova, at one time clergyman in South River, N. J., and Miss Julia Bowne arrived at New Brunswick, N. J., yesterday from Washington, where they were taken into custody on a request from the local authorities, who alleged they were fugitives from justice. A deputy sheriff accompanied the pair and, when the train entered New Jersey, Cordova was formally placed under arrest on a charge of abandonment, and Miss Bowne was served with a State's witness warrant. A large crowd made a noisy demonstration at the station. Cordova and Miss Bowne were taken to the courthouse and arraigned before Judge Suydam. Cordova was held in $1,000 bail on the abandonment charge and Miss Bowne in $500 as a witness. As neither could furnish bail they were taken to jail.

New Brunswick, N. J., March 3.—Miss Julia Bowne who eloped with Rev. J. F. Cordova, refuses to leave the Middlesex county jail unless Cordova goes with her. Her father offered to go her bail, and the bond was drawn up, by Justice Sedam, and the discharge ready, but she would not accept the offer.

Cordova sent from Rev. J. W. Shaw, of the Frst Methodist Church today and made a confession to him. He declared his wife was to blame for it all, and that if he was turned loose, at once, or kept in jail a year, he would not live with his family again. Miss Bowne had been true to him and he would be true to her. While talking with the pastor Cordova could see Miss Bowne through the grating of the jail and they made signals with their lips and hands to each other.

Fred Ingram, a waiter, was arrested in the corridor of the City Trust Company's building in New York, this morning, where he had called for the express purpose, he stated, of killing John D. Crimmins, the well known millionaire contractor. Ingram, who is believed to be a religious fanatic, told the Secretary of the company that he wanted to strangle Mr. Crimmins to death being inspired to do so by Jesus Christ. He declared that Mr. Crimmins was in a conspiracy to overthrow the Protestant Church and substitute the Catholic Church in its place. Ingram was arrested. He will be committed to Belleva hospital to have his sanity inquired into.

Overcome by a sudden attack of vertigo Charles Toenische, 51 years old, fell from the platform of the elevated station at Chatham Square, New York, today, and was ground to pieces by a train. He lived in Brooklyn. With his wife he was returning from a visit to their son, confined at the post graduate hospital with an ear affection.

The body of former United States Senator Edward O. Wolcott, of Colorado, who died of pneumonia at Monte Carlo, has been taken to Paris by his brother, Henry Wolcott. The remains will be cremated.

Hanged Wrong Man.

"My God! That's my brother! He never killed that woman. I am the murderer. I should have been hanged instead of Eugene!" cried Adolph J. Bloch yesterday in a frenzy of remorse, interrupting a companion at the steel mill in Canonsburg, Pa, who was reading to him an account of the hanging of Eugene Bloch at Allentown on Tuesday. He was in the Washington county jail last night awaiting a hearing on the charge of the murder to which he has confessed, and for which his innocent brother has been executed. He is a German Jew, twenty-six years old, and formerly lived in Philadelphia. His brother was hanged for the alleged murder of Mrs. Kate Falzinger on August 6, 1903. Adolph Bloch declared to the authorities yesterday, after the item had been read to him, that he himself killed Mrs. Falzinger, and that the brother who had been hanged was guiltless. Bloch is a mill worker, reads newspapers but little, and says he knew nothing of the trial, conviction and execution of his brother until yesterday.

The murder of Mrs. Falzinger was a brutal one. Her throat was cut, and her dead body was found hours after the crime. Eugene Bloch was arrested. He asserted that Mrs. Falzinger had been attacked by a stranger, and that he was trying to defend the woman when she was killed. Adolph Bloch says his brother knew him to be guilty and suffered death rather than betray him.

When brought to the jail in Washington, Pa., last night, Bloch was in a state of collapse. He gave out the statement in which he acknowledged his guilt, and expressed the hope that no mercy would be shown him for the terrible crime he committed.

The Allentown officials, who were communicated with yesterday evening over the long-distance telephone, said it was impossible that an innocent man should have been hanged for the Falzinger murder.

Late last night Bloch recovered his nerve to some degree, and declared to the jail officials that the whole story was a joke. Later, however, he repudiated this, and reiterated his guilt.

Russian Workmen Deliver an Ultimatum.

A dispatch from St. Petersburg says: "Unless the government immediately grants the workmen's demands today and tomorrow will mark gigantic stride in the labor troubles and revolutionary movements in Russia. The strike at Moscow has been resumed on a large scale, anarchy reigns in the Caucasus and at St. Petersburg the meager measures which the government advanced to quiet discontent and restore good relations between masters and men appear to have failed, with the probability of causing the storm to break anew. Disturbances in Warsaw are increasing. A bomb was thrown among a group of soldiers, but failed to explode. An armed suspect claiming to be a nephew of General Fock was arrested near the Czar's palace. The labor delegates representing the whole of the industrial population of St. Petersburg, and who were elected to choose 50 members of the Schidlovski reconciliation commission, met again yesterday and reaffirmed the resolutions adopted the previous day which threatened, not only to refuse to elect labor representatives to the commission, but to order a resumption of the general strike. A practical ultimatum was delivered, calling for an answer today. There is little expectation that the government will grant the conditions demanded. The strike already has assumed large porportions here, about 50,000 men being out. Among those who struck yesterday were the employes of the St. Petersburg shops of the Warsaw Railroad. The strike has not yet extended to the trainmen, but the leaders may decide to order them out in order to paralyze one of the most important railroads in Russia.

New York Stock Market.

New York, March 3.—The slighest reactionary tone of the market continued throughout a half hour, but was then followed by a slight improvement.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES.—For this section fair tonight. Saturday warmer; unsettled weather, but probably without rain; light variable winds.

City School Board.

At the monthly meeting of the School Board held last night there were present: Messrs. Thompson, Stabler, Yates, Ramsay, Thomson, Carne, Carter and the Superintendent. Mr. Carne presided.

Mr. Thos. L. Carter, recently elected a trustee from the Fourth ward, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Mr. T. J. Fannon, after being presented by the Superintendent and welcomed by the chairman, took his seat as a member of the board.

Mr. Stabler reported that an estimate had been made for heating Washington building with stoves, but the plan was not considered feasible; stoves could be placed in the building at a cost of about $250. He reported that the furnaces in the building had been repaired and the heating apparatus was all right now. He also reported that some minor repairs had been made at Washington building.

Mr. Stabler also reported that Capt. Bryant, chairman of the board, after consulting several members, had written a letter to the State Board of Public Instruction, advising against the consolidation of this school district with any other and also requesting the reappointment of Superintendent Kemper. The action of Chairman Bryant was indorsed by the board and Superintendent Kemper returned his thanks for the board's indorsement of him.

The Superintendent reported that he had visited all the schools during the month and found them in good order; according to instructions of the board he had directed the principals of the various schools to make notes of the absence of teachers and submitted a report showing that during the past month one teacher of Washington school had been absent on account of sickness three days and one for two days, on which occasions their schools had been closed; three teachers of Lee school had been absent one day each, but their schools had been kept open by substitute teachers. None of the colored teachers had been absent. He also reported that Misses Bessie Chilcott and Mamie L Hume having been found available substitutes and having been engaged as such, he anticipated no further closing of schools.

The Weather and River.

The temperature during the past two nights has been several degrees below the freezing point, the mercury yesterday morning standing at 18°. This morning it was but a few degrees higher. Ice has consequently been forming for the past forty-eight hours, and the ice in the river which was moving at times in front of this city yesterday, soon came to a standstill, and this morning the myriads of fragments in the channel were again frozen into a compact mass. The steamers, however, soon began to run and produced a perceptible movement of it.

The steamer Norfolk arrived up this morning about on time. She reports improved conditions in parts of the lower river, where the ice is running. Her officers also reported the large transport Arcadia, carrying Porto Rican soldiers, bound up, anchored off Cedar Point, and a bark from South America loaded with bone for the Bryant Fertilizer Company, anchored in the Kettle Bottoms.

The government tugboat Tecumseh stopped here this morning. Her captain reported the ice as moving at Indian Head and also at points between Glymont and Marshall Hall.

The steamer Newport News of the Washington and Norfolk line passed down yesterday evening on her way to Norfolk. She is expected to return early tomorrow morning with visitors for Washington who will participate in the inaugural ceremonies tomorrow.

The U. S. steamer Prairie, anchored off the city, attracts many people to the river front. The band occasionally discourses enlivening music, and government tugboats have been carrying visitors to and from the steamer. The Prairie is probably the largest steamer that ever came this far up the Potomac. She was formerly of the Morgan line of passenger steamers and at one time ran between New York and South American ports.

The steamer Harry Randall will reach her wharf at this port on Monday afternoon next and take on freight for lower river landings. She will return Tuesday morning at 7:30 on her trip down.

The tugboat George W. Pride, owned by Captain A. J. Fair, of this city, has been chartered to tow fishing vessels from Ferry Landing to this city and Washington.

Banished from the City.

A neatly dressed young man with a wooden leg appeared on King street last night in a drunken condition, He had too much aboard for a man with two legs, and his attempts to walk caused him to "tack" from one side of the pavement to the other. The dismembered individual finally seesawed to the electric railway station at Prince and Royal streets, where he fell and found himself unable to rise. The station house was notified and Officer Henderson soon appeared. The latter had considerable trouble in raising the man, who was not only disorderly but inclined to be vicious. He kicked the officer, using his wooden leg for the purpose, and the metal ring on the artificial limb cut into Mr. Henderson's leg penetrating to the bone. It finally became necessary to pick up the obstreperous individual bodily and transport him to the station house in a "spread-eagle" posture. It appearing this morning that the man was a shiftless itinerant who should not be a public change, it was ordered that he be conducted without the city limits and headed toward the north.

Business Augmented.

A regular advertiser in the Gazette sent a note to this office a day or two ago expressing his appreciation of the value of a business announcement he is now running in this paper. He refers to the fact that he is receiving letters from customers far and nea., most of whom state that they read his advertisement in the Gazette. The advertiser further states his business has increased wonderfully of late, and he attributes it to advertising.

Personal.

Mrs. Emma E. McCuen, who has been spending several weeks with relatives and friends in Wilmington, Philadelphia and Royersford, Pa., has returned to her home after a very pleasant visit.

Mr. Wm. A. Moore, jr., of 1001 Cameron street is rapidly improving from his injuries received at Front Royal last Monday.

Mrs. Henry Sampson, of south Washington street, who has been seriously ill, is slowly improving.

Rev. Mr. Ewell gave a charming talk to the children at the temperance prayer meeting held in the parlors of the Children's Home last night. A pleasing feature of these meetings is the increasing number of gentlemen that are attending from week to week. The Allison W. C. T. U. is grateful for this mark of appreciation.

Mr. and Mrs. Lindsay Williamson, of New York city, are visiting Mrs. J. R. Miller, on south Patrick street.

Circuit Court for the County.

[Judge C. E. Nicol presiding.]

Judge C. E. Nicol in the Circuit Court for the County, yesterday signed a bill of exceptions in the case of Louis Murdock, who was convicted at the January term of the Circuit Court upon an indictment for selling liquor unlawfully, returned against him in connection with the crusade against the alleged gambling establishment at St. Asaph. Murdock was fined $2,000 by the jury, and Judge Nicol added a sentence of thirty days in jail. Judgment was suspended to allow time for the application to the Court of Appeals for a writ of error, and an understanding was arrived at between Commonwealth's Attorney Mackey and Murdock's attorneys, with the approval of Judge Nicol, whereby Gov. Montague was asked to reduce the fine to $300. Under the terms of the agreement of the lawyers, an order was entered dismissing the indictments against Messrs. Hill, Burlingame Bargen and others, and the second indictment against Murdock, who were indicted for alleged violations of gaming laws. The conditions upon which the prosecutions are to be stopped and leniency shown Murdock are that the place at St. Asaph is to close and not to be opened again. Murdock, it is said, filed his bill of exceptions merely as a matter of precaution. It is understood that he will not press the appeal if the Governor acts in accordance with the recommendations of Mr. Mackey and Judge Nichol.

No business of interest was transacted at today's session and court adjourned for the term.

Visitors to Washington.

All the steam trains passing through this city today from the south for Washington have been crowded, and extra trains have been running in order to meet the demands for transportation. The electric trains for Mount Vernon have been running in sections, all crowded with pilgrims to the tomb of Washington. The streets have been alive with strangers all day, and at all historical and interesting points groups have been seen throughout the day. Christ Church, the site of the old Marshall House and the Carlyle House have been the main places of interest visited. Street peddlers have planted themselves at certain centres, especially about the electric railway stations displaying medals, canes, souvenirs, &c., while Alexandria dealers in secondhand articles have ransacked garrets and beat the dust out of articles supposed to be interesting to strangers.

Progressive Euchre Party.

The progressive euchre to be given by the Young Men's Sodality Lyceum, at their hall, next Monday night, promises to be a very successful affair. A large number of tickets have already been sold and many handsome prizes donated. The Lyceum's euchres have always proved to be successful and from present indications the one to be given Monday night will surpass any heretofore given by that organization.

To Come by Rail.

Owing to the bad ice conditions in the Potomac river, it was decided that it would be impracticable to carry the Seventy-first Virginia regiment to Washington for the inaugural parade Saturday on the sidewheel steamer Pocahontas, as first planned, and the Virginia troops have abandoned the water trip altogether. They will leave Norfolk for Washington via the Chesapeake and Ohio railway this evening.

A force of men was engaged last night in removing snow and ice from King street. Cars of the electric railway were being used in the work.

Coroner's Jury.

As was stated in the Gazette, Coroner Purvis yesterday viewed the remains of Frederick Schneider, who died from injuries received in the accident at Spring Park on the electric railway Wednesday night, and requested Dr. William M. Smith to make an autopsy with a view to holding an inquest to fix responsibility. A coroner's jury was summoned today, and this afternoon, after having viewed the remains at Demaine & Son's undertaking parlors, were adjourned until another day in order that witnesses may be summoned.

Light Stations Damaged by Ice.

Commander McCrea, lighthouse inspector of the Fifth lighthouse district, has been notified of damages received from the ice by the light stations at Nomini creek and Lower Cedar Point, both on the Potomac river, and Sandy Point station, at the entrance to the Baltimore channels. The damages to any of the lights are not so serious as to interfere with their duties.

Inauguration Day.

Tomorrow, Inauguration Day, while not a holiday, will be observed as such by a large number of people in this city. Many merchants have announced that their stores will be closed early in the day, while others will not be opened at all. The public offices will be kept open, but all the clerks who can be spared, will be given holiday and the exodus to Washington will be quite general.

Police Court.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

William Phillips, arrested by Officers Young and Roberts for drunken and disorderly conduct, forfeited $5 collateral by failing to appear.

Jesse Lee, colored, charged with stealing shoes from J. Farrow and E. Drake, was fined $5.

Funeral.

The funeral of the late B. F. Entwisle, who died at an early hour Wednesday morning, took place from the residence, on Lee street, between Duke and Wolfe this afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Brooke and Rev. Mr. Carpenter. The pallbearers were Messrs. O. F. Phillips, G. E. Markell, Geo. Windsor, H. B. Ramey and James Eveleth.

Accident to an Alexandrian.

Mr. Harry Kramer, of this city, was injured in an automobile accident at Camden, S. C., a few days ago. He was seated in the machine with Mr. Waldorf Olious, of Boston, when the auto, going at a lively speed, was overturned. Both received painful, but not serious, injuries.

Death of a Fireman.

Mr. William T. Tongue, fireman on the Southern Railway, died at his home, 108 south Columbus street, yesterday. The deceased had recently been ill of pneumonia. Mr. Tongue was a son of the late Thomas O. Tongue, of Calvert county, Md.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Mrs. Boswell, sister of Mrs. D. Webster, of this city, died at her home near Piscataway, Md., a day or two age,

Mrs. Luckett, of this city, lost a pocketbook containing $16 on a south bound electric train Wednesday evening.

It is said that the government is to remove the wharf at Fort Hunt and construct instead a stone abutment which will extend a considerable distance into the river.

Mrs. Frank Goodrich died at her home in Prince Georges county, Md., a few days ago. The deceased formerly lived on east Wolfe street in this city.

The local travel between this city and Washington over the electric railway was much deranged in favor of the through travel between Washington and Mount Vernon.

In the Corporation Court today, the estate of Frederick Schneider, who was killed in the railroad accident Wednesday night, was committed to the City Sergeant as executor.

A charter was granted yesterday to the J. H. Bradley Company (inc.), of Alexandria, with $20,000 capital. J. H. Bradley is president, S. D. Bradley vice president and J. H Hayden director, all of Washington. They will do a real estate business.

The northern mails did not reach this city until late this morning, the trains between Baltimore and Washington having been delayed by some cars having been derailed at Anacostia.

Arabs Fighting for Independence.

The present insurrection in Yemen province, Arabia, appears to put in the shade all previous revolts. The center of the movement is at Saada, northward of Sanaa, and already there are signs of its extension to the Province of Assyr. The insurgents have again surrounded Sanaa, and a stubborn fight has been in progress for five days. Many of the Turkish troops refuse to resist any further and are deserting. In the south the towns of Aab and Hidjeh, the latter containing 2,000 troops, with four guns, are surrounded and on the point of capitulating. The alleged victory of February 1, when it was officially announced that the Turkish forces had routed the rebels investing Sanaa and Hodeida, Yemen province, and had relieved the besieged garrison at Sanaa, turns out to have been an insurgent success. Turkey's defective transportation delays the dispatch of reinforcements. The object of the insurrection is believed to be the creation of an autonomous Arab state.

A Female Claude Duval.

Constables are scouring the country in the vicinity of Minersville and Primrose, Pa., for a young woman, aged about 20 years, who is playing the role of a modern Claude Duval, and has held up no less than a dozen travelers in the last two weeks. She is a woman of Amazonian proportions, wears a mask, and points a brace of pistols calling upon her victims to "stand and deliver.' Isaac Wehtzel of Pottsville, the latest victim, yesterday was relieved of jewels and cash amounting to $250. John Vallowitch, a miner, was held up a short time later and robbed of his watch. Two miners were robbed of their pay several days ago. All of these robberies have taken place on a lonely part of the highway near the Lytle colliery, which was the scene of the mine horror of two weeks ago. The woman who is described as of prepossessing appearance is in hiding, and has effectually concealed her identity thus far.

Religious Liberty in Russia.

The committee of ministers, in St. Petersburg, after discussing the status of religious dissenters and considering measures to remove the grievances of that class, has decided in favor of repealing all regulations of a vexatious character proposed by the minister of the interior within three months, and to order the abolition of all measures interfering with religious belief except such as may be considered indispensable; which should receive the sanction of the Emperor. The committee of ministers has also decided to direct the minister of the interior to forbid the enforcement of regulations dealing with protection, or State or police surveillance, of religious matters. The committee of ministers also calls upon the heads of ministerial departments and the procurator general of the Holy Synod to present reports to the Emperor, and requests that all sentences of exile and imprisonment for religious errors be quashed.

Are You Engaged?

Engaged people should remember, that, after marriage, many quarrels can be avoided by keeping their digestion in good condition with Electric Bitters. S A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., says: "For years my wife suffered intensely from dyspepsia, complicated with a torpid liver, until she lost her strength and vigor and became a mere wreck of her former self. Then she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and finally made her entirely well. She is now strong and healthy." E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists, sells and guarantees them at 50c a bottle.

A Favorite Remedy for Babies.

Its pleasant taste and prompt cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy a favorite with the mothers of small children. It quickly cures their coughs and colds and prevents any danger of pneumonia or other serious consequences. It not only cures croup, but when given as soon as the croupy cough appears will prevent the attack. For sale by Gibson and Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

A Dinner Invitation.

After a hearty meal a dose of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure will prevent an attack of Indigestion. Kodol is a thorough digestant and a guaranteed cure for Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Gas on the Stomach, Sour Risings, Bad Breath and all stomach troubles. N. Watkins, Lesbus, Ky., says: "I can testify to the efficacy of Kodol in the cure of Stomach Trouble. I was afflicted with Stomach Trouble for fifteen years and have taken six bottles of your Kodol Dyspepsia Cure, which has entirely cured me. The six bottles were worth $1,000 to me." Sold by all druggists.

Nothing will cure Indigestion that doesn't digest the food and give the stomach a rest. It isn't necessary to starve yourself in order to rest your stomach—take Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It will digest any quantity of all the wholesome food you want to eat while your stomach takes a rest—recuperates and grows strong. This wonderful preparation is justly entitled to all of its many remarkable cures. Sold by all druggists.

There is one rational way to treat nasal catarrh: the medicine is applied direct to the affected membrane. The remedy is Ely's Cream Balm. It restores the inflammed tissue to a healthy state without drying all the life out of them and it gives back the lost senses of taste and smell. The sufferer who is tried of vain experiments should use Cream Balm. Druggists sell it for 50 cts. Ely Brothers, 56 Warren street, New York, will mail it.
